

MARINER

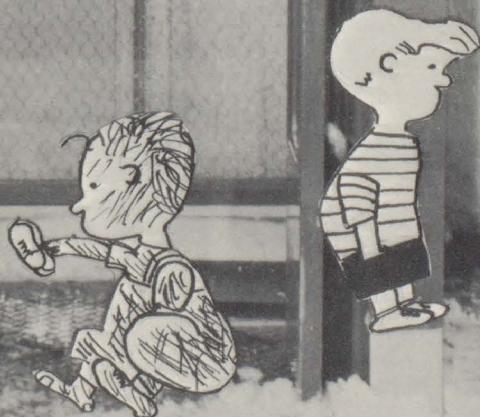

1960

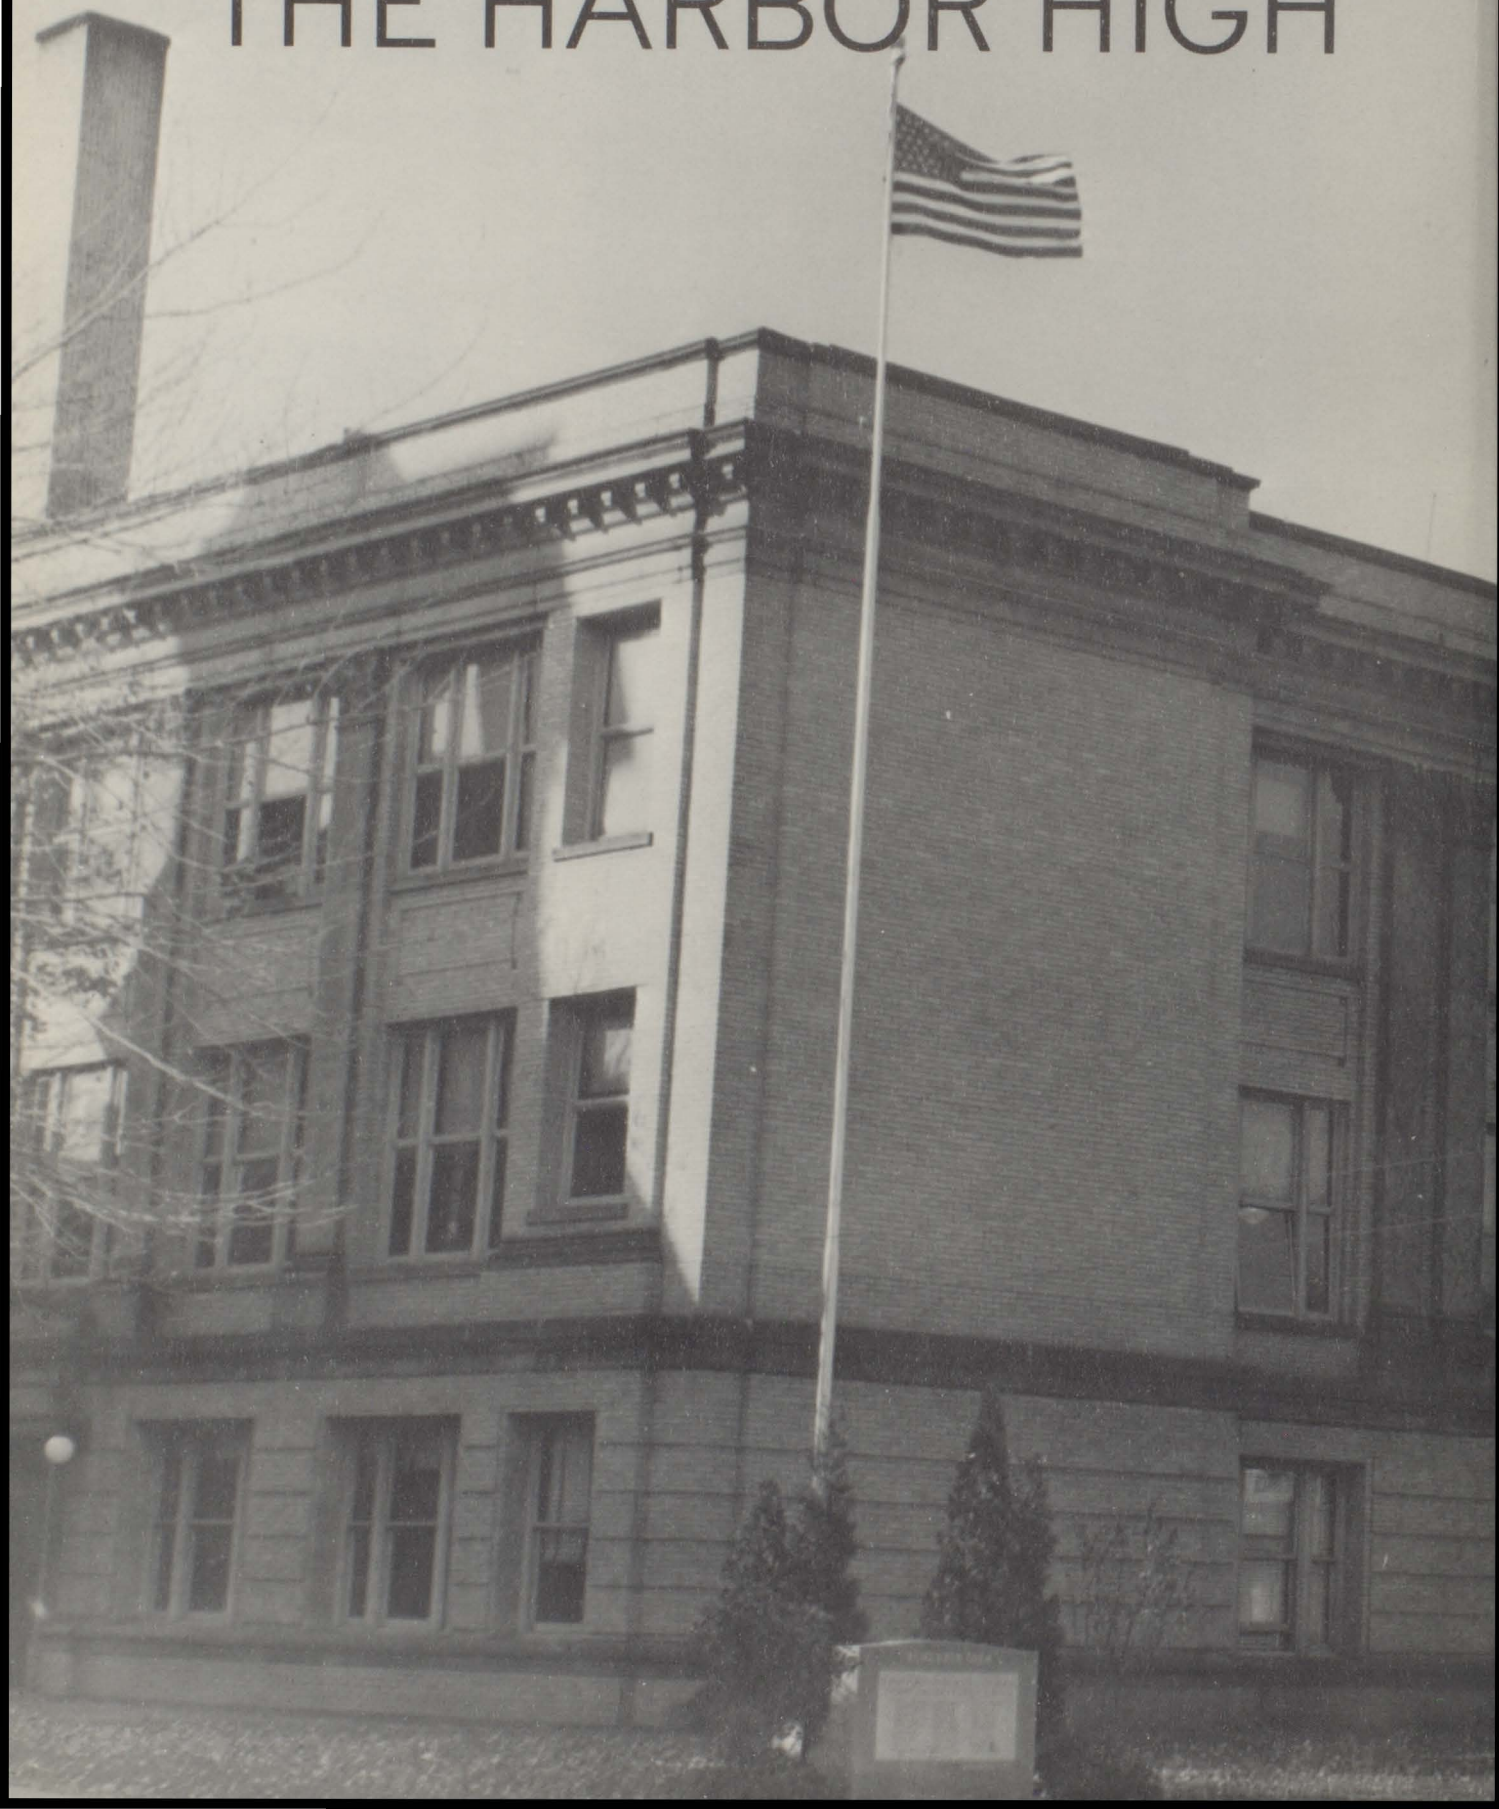

HI THERE! WE PRESENT . . .

THE HARBOR HIGH

1960 MARINER

DAN ATZEMIS, MARY GUSTAFSON, FRED BERNARDO, and CINDY CARLISLE look on as SUPERINTENDENT LANHAM reads them an article from a college bulletin.

Seniors of 1960

You are fortunate to be of this Atomic Age. Never before have young people found as great opportunities as stand at your threshold. With these opportunities in your grasp, you also face serious responsibilities.

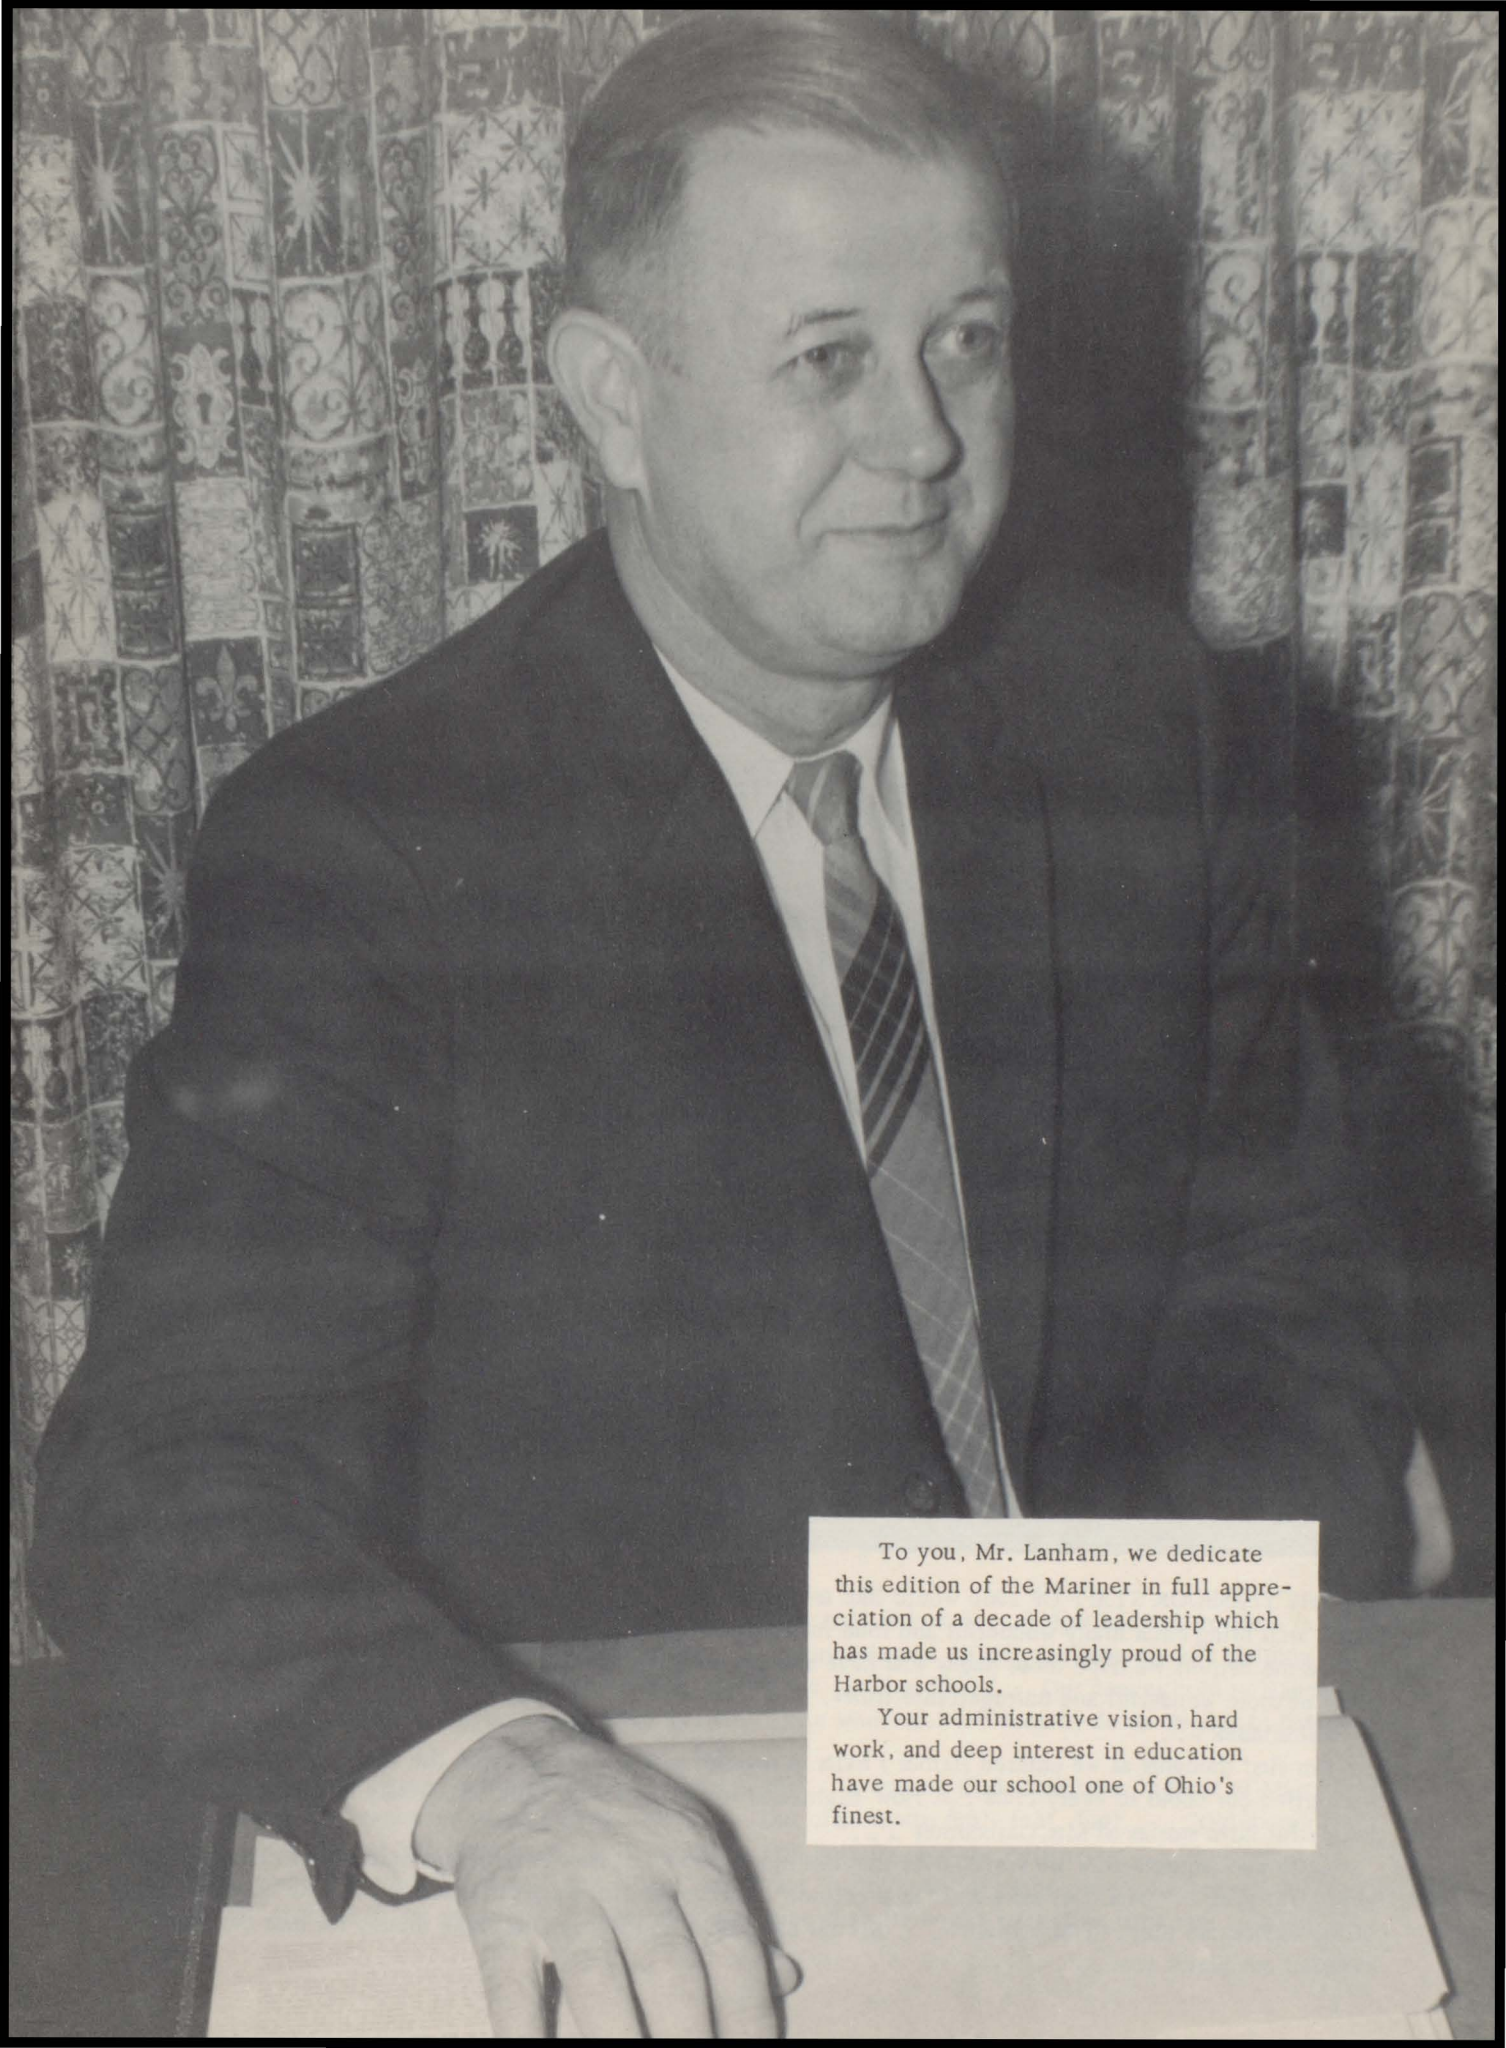

We have learned some profound secrets of the atom, but we are, as a world civilization, still illiterate in the secret of teaching mankind to live in peace and brotherhood.

You must apply yourself to wisdom and pray fervently or you will become the pawn to the currents of many evil forces in our world.

Face the challenges and grasp the opportunities of your age, then go forth to serve mankind.

The Board of Education, faculty and I wish you every happiness and success in life.

Ralph S. Lanham

To you, Mr. Lanham, we dedicate this edition of the Mariner in full appreciation of a decade of leadership which has made us increasingly proud of the Harbor schools.

Your administrative vision, hard work, and deep interest in education have made our school one of Ohio's finest.

THE YEARBOOK STAFF OF 1960 would like to present this edition of the Mariner to you in hopes that someday it will bring back many wonderful and fond memories of your years at Harbor High.

To the Seniors we hope these pages will have special meaning. So let us begin by looking back and reliving some of those wonderful and unforgettable times.

REMEMBER . . .

Our first thoughts as we entered Harbor's halls in seventh grade-how enormous the study hall looked, and how we carried our books to every class . . . How frightened we were of Mrs. Eddy, especially in study hall . . . Those wonderful farm stories of Mrs. Casbournes' . . .

Latin and Algebra-how we slaved over them in ninth grade . . . How it rained so hard at our class picnics year after year . . . Mrs. DeVassie and "Evangeline," who could ever forget that poem . . . The tense moments of the sophomore play, "The Valiant" . . . All our bake sales and fish fries to make money for that certain event of our junior year . . .

AND WE'LL NEVER FORGET . . .

Moving Up to Our Lockers on the third floor and into study hall as juniors . . . How excited we were to show off our class rings . . . the '58 Football championship . . . Joanne Wagner driving the new driver's training car into a telephone pole . . . The night the chair broke during the Jr. Class Play . . . Our dances held in Nappi's parking lot . . . Mr. Mandarino hypnotizing Mike Swift . . . The wonderful job done by Suzie Regner in "My Fair Lady". . .

When the Madrigals gave their rendition of "Silent Night" . . . Selling Christmas trees in front of Marty Miller's . . . Our first exchange student Bjorg Ahlsen . . . Our class motto fun! fun! fun! . . . "Oklahoma," and what a wonderful job was done by Sarajeau Bordeaux, Bob Fortney, and the entire cast . . . How proud we were of our wonderful prom "Fantasia," and all the problems! Running out of crepe paper, our leaky lake, and coming home at three in the morning . . . The '59 graduation when we began to realize time was growing shorter.

LOOKING BACK ON . . .

The Topky Memorial Library--all the enjoyment we shared, the knowledge we gained, and the conclusions we drew . . . What a ball we had at our bonfire to kick off the football season . . . The surprised look on Gwen Miller's face when she was announced Homecoming Queen . . . Our tremendous football team that never let us down and won the WRL crown once more for Harbor . . . The party at Judy Kneen's when the German Sailors came . . . The Sr. Girl's P.J. party at Susan Carle's and their interpretation of the stroll.

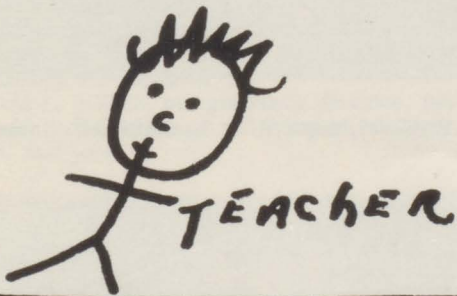

Eva Faulkenberg, our exchange student from Sweden, whose smile gave to all a warm welcome and lasting friendship. . . The surprised look on Tom Buonomo's face the night of his surprise party . . . Some of those experiments in Chemistry Lab when we came up with the most interesting reactions . . . The forming of the Sr. Men's Club and all of their formal dinners . . . Looking forward to the Jr.-Sr. Prom, Baccalaureate, and our Graduation Day . . .

What wonderful years we've had at HHS, what memories. . .

HARBOR'S SCHOOL BOARD

The School Board, which meets on the third Wednesday of every month, renders a great service to the community in that they work hand in hand with the Superintendent, other administrators, and the teachers to insure that every student is exposed to the best possible education. SENIORS
TOGETHER FOR

OF 1960

THE LAST TIME

Miss O'Dell, Mr. Jones, and Mr. Caylor take time for a short conference.

OUR THANKS

These three are well-known figures among the members of the senior class.

Miss O'Dell has taken much of her valuable time to lend us a helping hand whenever needed. During the decorating of our prom, "Fantasia," she could be seen sitting amidst all the confusion in the gym. We really appreciate all those late hours she put in with us.

To you, Mr. Jones, who has always helped us straighten out our problems, whether they be college or otherwise, we will never forget what a true friend you've been. Our yearbook has been a real success due to your skillful guidance, and we believe you were really "tops" as our yearbook advisor.

Last but not least we thank you, Mr. Caylor. We appreciate all you've done as our class adviser these past two years. We hope we weren't too trying during our bake sales, fish fries, tree sales, and the prom.

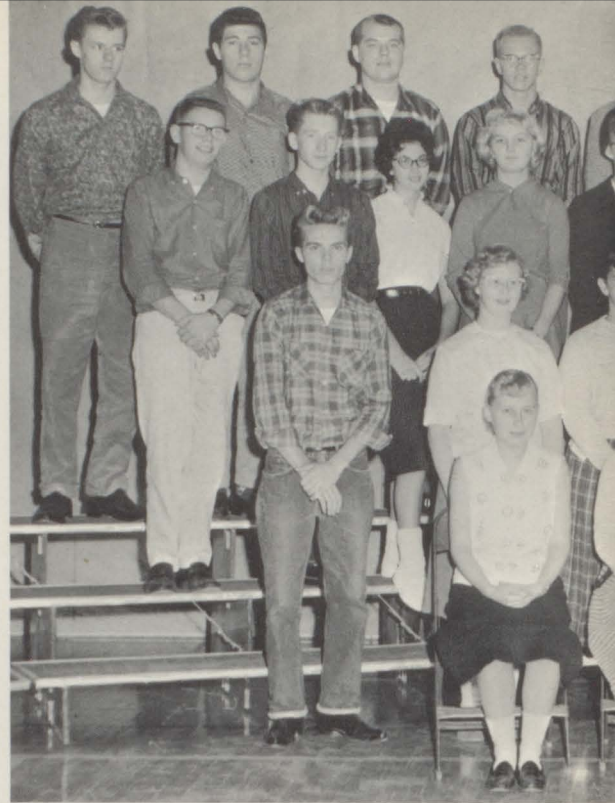

The Class of 1960 salutes you, Miss O'Dell, Mr. Jones, and Mr. Caylor.

UNDERCLASSMEN

JUNIORS

"Do you ever think we'll be done in time?" anxiously say the excited juniors as they go through the halls making plans for the prom. They have raised money by holding numerous bake sales and fish fries, selling Valentine candy, operating concession stands at the games, and the Super Supper. This year under the supervision of their advisers, Mr. Walsilko, and Mr. Niebergall, the juniors sold Harbor buttons, mums at the Homecoming Game, and tickets to their class play, "Harvey." One member of the class will be sent next year to study a semester in Europe. These juniors are working on a busy schedule and are experiencing one of their happiest years.

SOPHOMORES

"Just think, only one more year and we'll be working for our own prom!" exclaim the sophomores. They aren't letting the prom creep up on them. They are getting prepared in good style. In the past years they have held bakesales, fish fries, and picnics. This year they had the concession stand at the basketball games where they cheered for their own reserve team, sponsored a dance, sold Harbor High pens and pencils, planned bake sales and a dinner. They also have enjoyed themselves at their class parties. They have been assisted by their advisers Mr. Blake, and Mr. Hall.

FRESHMEN

"At last we've got a name! Doesn't it make you feel grown-up?" chant the vivacious Freshmen. They have proven themselves to be a hard-worked and spirited group. They sponsored bake sales and ran two concessions at the Carnival last year to earn money for their class. This year they have had a bake sale, fish fry, and have other activities in the making. Their advisers, Mrs. Anderson and Mr. Kaura have supervised their activities.

EIGHTH GRADE

"No one can call us the little seventh graders now!" happily chant the eighth graders. These students have finally become accustomed to all the regulations, stairwells, and most of the teachers. They've found that things aren't really as bad as they imagined. They have begun to take an interest in extra-curricular activities. The class has been quite busy with their studies, and along with their work has enjoyed a trip to the Ashtabula City Hall to see the City Council.

These eighth graders are anxiously looking forward to their future years at Harbor. They have gotten off to a fine start and have been assisted this year by their adviser, Mr. Utz.

STUDENT COUNCIL

One of the most important organizations in our school is the Student Council. They have gone full speed ahead this year under the direction of Mr. Jones. They organized a bonfire rally in September, put up a bulletin board in study hall, arranged for hall monitors, developed a Purple and Gold Spotlight assembly for Thursday afternoons, continued Monday afternoon religious assemblies, helped start a pep club to support all basketball games, and kept the school morale high at all times.

To be eligible for membership in the Council, one must have at least a "C" average at the time of election and have been a student at Harbor High for one semester. It is a great honor to be a member in this organization for they are representing the student body.

Dave Felt, the President of the Council and a graduating senior, we especially want to congratulate on the wonderful job he has done this past year. Aside from his many other activities he has been a wonderful leader for the Council and has greatly benefitted our school through his hard work.

The officers of Student Council, Steve Hartman, Suzanne Tumer, Cyndy Carlisle, and Dave Felt, discuss together the principles of their organization.

The President of Student Council, Dave Felt, seems to enjoy his job of addressing the students during an assembly program.

Busy All the While

Mary Ann Beckman, Dick Huhta, Dave Felt, Christine Beckman, and Sis Nyland laughingly read over a suggestion from one of the students to install coffee urns next to the drinking fountains.

Cis Nyland and Thad Hague participate in a Monday afternoon religious assembly. The Student Council revived these assemblies this year.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Character, leadership, service, and scholarship are the four principles of the National Honor Society.

Eight seniors in the upper fourth of their class were taken into the society last year in an impressive candlelight service before the student body. Each was given a gold pin with the four principles of the society and a torch symbolizing the "light of truth" inscribed there on.

Mrs. Clara D. Alford is adviser.

OFFICERS

President Judy Kneen
 Vice-President Steve Hartman
 Secretary-Treasurer Tina Maenpa

"Do you really study all that?" asks our yearbook photographer, as he catches Tina Maenpa, Judy Kneen, and Steve Hartman hard at work. It took some effort to get these three away from all their studies and pose for their yearbook picture. They are fine students with a good scholastic record and were chosen respective officers of the Society last fall. They are a fine example of leadership and have lead the group well.

National

Quill & Scroll

The National Quill and Scroll is an "honor society" for outstanding scholastic journalists. A person must have done outstanding work in the field of journalism either on the Mariner Staff or the Yearbook before he is given the oath of membership. In addition, he must be in the upper third of his class.

An annual banquet in the spring is the highlight of the society's year. During the festivities, the new members are admitted and presented a gold pin in a solemn candlelight ceremony.

Their advisers are Miss Boyce and Mr. Jones.

SEATED: Miss Boyce, Tom Wallender, Mr. Jones. STANDING: Darla Livingston, Cyndy Carlisle, Judy Kneen, Priscilla Allen, Lorraine Perugine.

NATIONAL THESPIANS

These are the senior members of National Thespians who have many wonderful memories of their troupe 163. Most of these students have been in the troupe for two years, while some for three.

SEATED: Mrs. Lehtinhen, Carol Haskell, Lorraine Perugine, Pat Pinney, Karen Issacson, Suzanne Regner. STANDING: Susan Carle, Christine Jaskella, Marty Miller, Sarajeau Bordeaux, Tom Wallender, Dave Felt, Tina Maempa, Bob Hauser, Mike Swift, Sandy Lyon, Gwen Miller, Claire Hewins, Miss O'Dell.

Many of the junior members earned admittance into the troupe by their performances in the Sophomore and Junior Class Plays. There are also two sophomore members. There is no doubt about the fine job these students will do in leading the club next year. They have earned their memberships well, and have displayed their fine acting ability during the Junior Class Play, "Harvey."

SEATED: Miss O'Dell, Barb Ballo, Bob Pressman, Karen Bordeaux, Linda Bollman, Kay Roller, Judi Beighley. STANDING: Eric Fahnoe, Art Sheppard, Sherry Lamb, Heikka Makela, Judy Herlevi, Barbara Kujampa, Lonnie Riippa, Diane Gregory.

Before one of their presentations, we took a peek at these busy Thespians, assisted by their adviser Miss O'Dell. To earn membership for the National Thespians, one must accumulate enough points through dramatic work. Two initiations are held each year, with the new members presenting monologues. Thespians activity centers around a dramatic workshop, presenting plays in the Variety Show and Carnival, and directing a Jr. High Play Contest.

We are honored to have Mrs. Lehtinhen as a new member this year. She has supported our club and all its efforts.

Latin Club

"Veni" and "Vidi" would apply to the first year Latin members. They are leaving the conquered until the end of their second year. They have learned that hard work and study make up a good Latin grade.

For membership into the Latin Club, these first year members found they had to have an A or B average, however this year the third year class was eligible regardless of grades. ROW 1: J. Nelson, B. Gray. ROW 2: N. Kepner, K. Waltari, P. Turchik. ROW 3: D. Reece, N. Palo, J. Mikkelsen, C. Beckman.

These second and third year Latin members have accomplished a well-rounded program of Latin instruction. They put in many hours of hard work, but benefitted much in the outcome.

The two main projects of the Latin Club are the Adoption of families at Christmas and the Carnival Fish Pond. Mrs. Ileta Eddy is their adviser.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club with Mrs. Eddy as adviser, is composed of all Spanish students in senior high who wish to join. The meetings are held on the first Wednesday of each month, at which time Spanish customs are discussed. There are also reports, book reviews, and stories provided by various students.

The Spanish course proves to be a vivid and enjoyable language. It gives the student a better knowledge and background of his southern neighbors.

FRENCH CLUB

The first year members have finally become acquainted with the phrase "Le Cercle Francais," which means The French Club. They have enjoyed going to the club's meetings which were held on the third Wednesday of each month, and which took place in the homes of the members. The meetings have proven an educational as well as social function. French Club is one of the few organizations that enables both boys and girls in grades 9-12 to work together.

The old "pros" in the French Club, the second year members, have completed two interesting years in their study of French. Many of them have secured pen-pals from France and other countries. The club also adopted two families for Christmas and an elderly woman. We provided them with gifts and food.

We have enjoyed having Miss Boyce as adviser this year, and are grateful for all the knowledge she finally drilled in our heads.

Stage Crew

Dan Atzemis and Joe Licate have been quite active this year with their various duties as stage hands. Many of the jobs they may be seen performing are setting up equipment, maintaining stage properties, arranging spotlights, and cleaning the stage.

All their hard work has been well appreciated. Many productions such as the Junior and Senior Class Plays and the Variety Show would be unable to go on without them.

Dan Atzemis holds the ladder for Joe Licate.

Jr. Red

Cross

Following its Motto, "We Serve," the Junior Red Cross Council performs many services in the interest of promoting friendship and international understanding and creating a little happiness and joy in the home community.

The Council, composed of seventh through twelfth graders, sent twenty-four boxes overseas, twelve Christmas boxes to the County Home, and performed several other activities designed to help the Children's Home and others this year. Money collected in the annual enrollment was used for these purposes. Mrs. Gloria Anderson is the adviser.

Photo Club

The objective of the Photography Club is to learn the five techniques of picture taking.

Due to the loss of an enlarger this year, the club was very limited since an enlarger is necessary in developing pictures.

The club has its own darkroom and other necessary equipment so the students were able to learn many things about photography.

Their adviser is Mr. Caylor.

Y-Canteen Council

Forty students from Ashtabula High and Harbor High are members of the Y-Canteen Council. They meet twice a month at the Y. M. C. A. for the purpose of promoting better relations between the two schools.

They have sponsored dances at the Y. M. C. A. open to all senior high students and have held parties for their own enjoyment.

SENIOR GIRLS

If you saw a group of strange-looking "girls" around the halls in burlap bags last May it wasn't a mirage -- it was the initiation of the junior girls into the Senior Girls' Club. This is not the limit of their activities. This year they planned the Homecoming Dance, adopted a family for Christmas, bought "memory books," sold milk and candy at noon, and -- as always -- popped popcorn at the football games. The money they take in by selling milk, candy, and popcorn will be left as a gift for the school upon their graduation. Meetings are held on the first and third Tuesdays of the month at the girls' homes. Their advisors are Miss Ruth Wisman and Miss Edith Teeple.

SENIOR MEN'S CLUBS

The Senior Men's Club is probably the newest organization in the school. It was started by a group of seniors who wanted to improve relations among the senior men. The club is run by an executive committee and headed by a general chairman who were selected by the boys of the senior class. A constitution was drawn up by Val Osinski. Business meetings are usually held twice a month and one of these is always a dinner meeting. The men have dined at the Parrish House and the Spagetteria. Other dinner meetings were planned for later in the year at the Ashtabula Hotel and the Swallows.

The senior men have laid the foundation for the club and hope that it will be continued by each succeeding class of senior men.

MONOGRAM CLUB

The Monogram Club is an athletic organization composed of lettermen and managers of football, basketball, track, and golf. The main purpose of the club is to encourage good sportsmanship and fair play in everyday life. The club was established in 1954. Since that time there have been regular meetings and the club has been the goal of many athletes. Beside their regular activities this year, the monogram club has organized a bowling team. The advisers are Mr. Soltys and Mr. Able.

G. A. A.

The older members of G.A.A. being the Juniors and Seniors, have had many enjoyable experiences that they will always remember from G.A.A. Among these memories will be all those Saturday mornings of bowling, and all the terrific scores they supposedly received. Through rain or snow one would see these faithful G.A.A. girls out decorating the goal posts. They certainly hope that someday someone will dedicate a ladder for this process. Many of these girls would also be seen at play days held by the surrounding schools, where they participated in various sports events. The past few years we have adopted families during the Christmas season. Many gifts and cans of food were brought in by members. One of the biggest projects of the group each year is their semi-formal dance. It was held in February this year and was a huge success. Miss Leach is adviser.

G. A. A.

Because the Girls' Athletic Association is one of the only clubs that provides membership to all girls in grades 9-12, and because of its large membership, we have devoted a separate page to the Freshman and Sophomores, and to the Juniors and Seniors. Both of these groups work together as a whole in promoting better relationship between students.

These freshman and sophomores have had a fine participation in all G.A.A. activities. Many of these girls support our pep club, are in Modern Dancing or Cheerleading, and play on the G.A.A. Basketball team. These girls have certainly been attentive members in the club. Their time and hard work has been well observed.

JUNIOR Y-TEENS

The Jr. Y-Teens have been a very active group this year. They started the year off in good fashion with their annual potato chip drive. Everyone around the school could be seen eating potato chips. They proved to be a very productive group when they packed hundreds of envelopes full of Christmas seals. They also worked hard on their Jr. High dance which was called the "Snowball Swing."

The membership in the group this year is one of the largest they have had. These girls have many plans and ideas which they hope to accomplish in the future. One of these is a swimming party at the Y.M.C.A. They have been led by their adviser, Mrs. Alford.

SENIOR Y-TEENS

The Senior Y-Teens has become a well known organization around our school. Membership is opened to any girl in grades 9-11. The Y-Teens help to build leadership and character among its members. One should be proud to belong to such a club, which is always busily engaged in various activities. To get things off to a good start this year, they held a pot luck dinner. Since then, they have made Christmas wreaths during the holiday season, held a dance called "The Sadie Hawkins' Swirl," which was decorated around the Dogpatch Theme, and sponsored a potato chip drive. They also participated in the Hanging of the Greens at the Y.W.C.A. Their advisor is Miss Houch.

MARINER

STAFF

THE MARINER, Harbor High School's bi-monthly newspaper, is prepared by members of the advanced journalism class with the help of the vocational printing department.

Under the direction of co-editors Cyndy Carlisle and Tom Wallender, work in layout, news writing, circulation, and advertisement is performed by staff members. A semester of journalism is the main requirement for staff membership.

The staff's flexible setup enables each student to gain experience in several fields of journalism such as news gathering and personal interviews.

VOCATIONAL PRINTERS

Another feature of Harbor High's varied curriculum is the vocational printing course taught by Louis Dewein. Harbor is the only school between Cleveland and Erie to offer such a course. This year six seniors and four juniors are enrolled in the class. These vocational students spend seventy-five per cent of their day in the laboratory doing work and receiving instruction in related subjects.

They print programs for school events, tickets, and posters. They sell "funny saying" cards at the carnival and this year the printers sold stationary to raise money for their Vocational Industrial Club.

BELOW: Barbara Kujampa, Shirley Udell, Peggy Herevi.

The Modern Dancers are comprised of some thirty girls. You must be a sophomore, junior, or senior to become a member. Tryouts are held at the end of the freshman year. Judging is based upon rhythm, poise, and initiative. General dance steps such as the walk, leap, and slide are also used as basic requirements.

These Dancers perform in about five shows per year. The biggest one being the Spring recital in April. All rehearsals and performances build up to this event.

Plans have been made to write a Constitution for future members to base the organization on. The group as a whole strives to perfect the art of being a better sport and a graceful dancer.

MUSIC

HARBOR SENIOR CHOIR

Singing through the halls at Christmas time was one of the many activities carried on by our fifty-six voice A Capella Choir, which is under the direction of Mr. Herbert Bierdeman.

The Choir also held an exchange concert with Ashtabula High A Capella Choir, sang at the annual Christmas Meditation, which was recorded and broadcast over W.I.C.A., and performed for the Rotary Club. As a money making project, the choir and band sold candy to make money for the Music Boosters.

HARBOR SENIOR BAND

The Senior High Band, consisting of 86 students under the direction of Oliver Khaura and Ronald Hakela, has been a very active organization this season. The band was always participating in one activity or another that was going on in school. Everyone enjoyed hearing them play for our "Purple and Gold" spotlight assembly. Something new that has been added this year is the dance band. It is composed of juniors and seniors and adds a bright touch to our music department. They have also performed in assembly and played for the Thanksgiving dance. The Senior Band held their annual Winter Concert January 31. They also performed and did a wonderful job in the Spring Concert. The band members enjoyed the exchange concerts with Conneaut and Ashtabula. It keeps the students on their toes when they know they will be in competition. Their big event of the year was the contest in the Spring. Not one spectator at the football games was able to attend without enjoying the wonderful entertainment the band provided. There are twelve graduating seniors this year, all which have done a fine job.

HARBOR'S HIGHSTEPPERS

Harbor's Majorettes have displayed a great deal of pep and enthusiasm this year. They led the marching band and performed in halftime shows during the football season. When Carnival time comes each year, the majorettes are always seen leading the parade. They also lead the Memorial Day parade.

The seven girls performed in the Purple and Gold spotlight assembly, sponsored by the Student Council, and put on an act for the annual Variety Show.

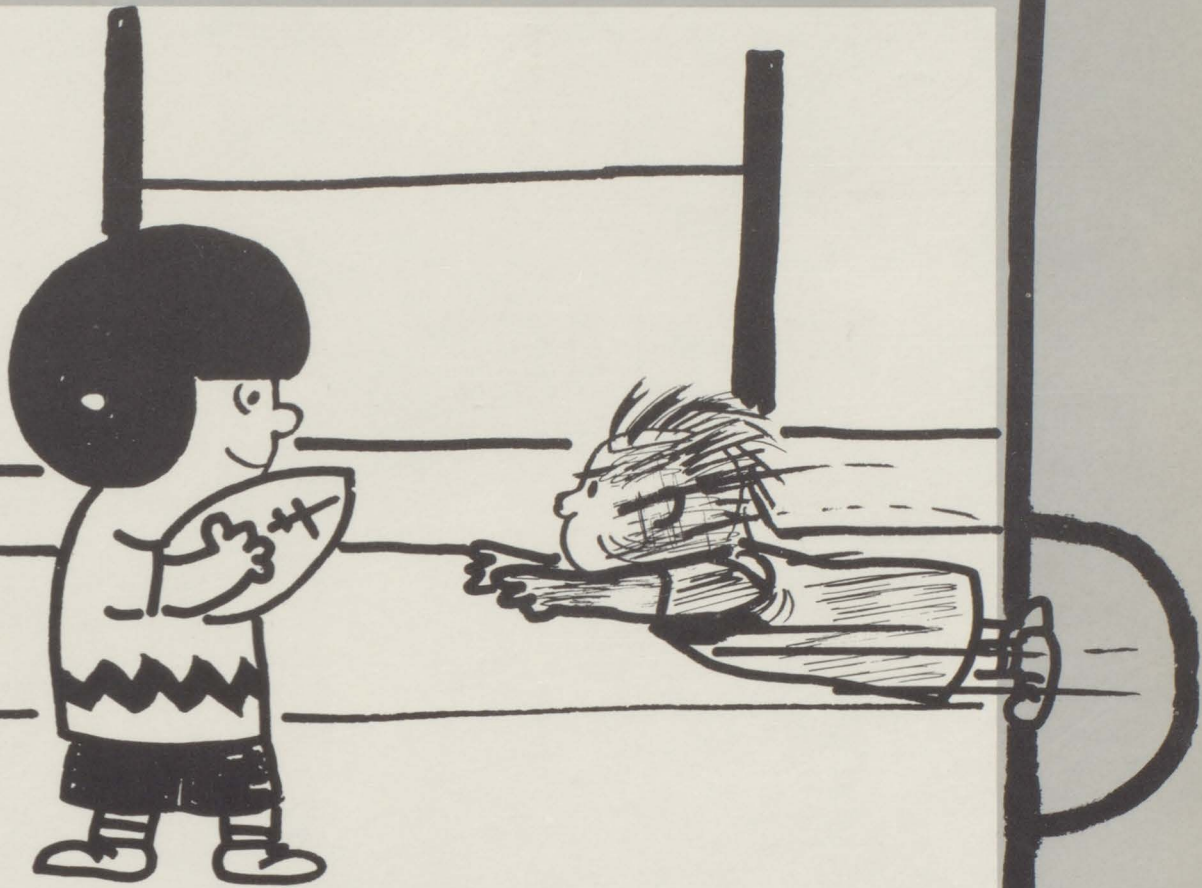

The band and majorettes have been under the direction of Head Drum Majorette, Gwen Miller, a senior, who has held this position for the past two years.

W. R. L. CHAMPS

The earnest coaching efforts of Norbert Soltys and John Able and the fighting spirit of the players combined to give our team another winning season.

We can well be proud of the team's 5 win, 3 loss, 1 tie record. Again the boys took home the Golden Anchor in a thrilling game with Edgewood. We finished the season in first place in the Western Reserve League although the winner of the crown wasn't decided until the last league game. After tying Edgewood, 0-0, the Mariners still remained one-half game behind. However, in a storybook ending we shall long remember, Chardon upset Edgewood as Harbor dropped Perry in the final.

THE FOOTBALL LINE-UP

At the Annual HHS Football Banquet the outstanding players of the 1959 season were awarded trophies for their accomplishments. Gary Godley, senior guard, was chosen "Most Valuable Player." Others who were awarded for their fine jobs were Dave Miller, senior halfback, "Best Offensive Back"; Phil Hagan, junior guard, "Best Defensive Lineman"; Pete Pearson, junior halfback, "Best Defensive Back"; and Hal Forrest, junior center, "Most Improved Player." The team selected Peter Pearson and Richard Dunnick as co-captains for the 1960 season.

Coach Soltys, who came here in 1952, has made a spectacular record at Harbor. Through his dynamic coaching, Harbor Football teams have had six winning seasons; two of the seasons, 1956 and 1957, being undefeated. Coach Soltys is a friend to every football player and to many other students as well. His patience, understanding, brilliant strategy, and humor have provided the players with the impetus to win. We at Harbor should be grateful that a man of Norbert Solty's caliber is a member of our faculty.

BASKETBALL CHAMPS

Under the able coaching of John Abel the Harbor Mariners emerged victorious as WRL champs, following a season which was filled with many spectacular and exciting games. The boys always played a very aggressive game and gave the fans many breathless moments, particularly during the last quarters. All and all they played a very successful season for Harbor High.

OUR LINEUP . . .

Chuck Hague

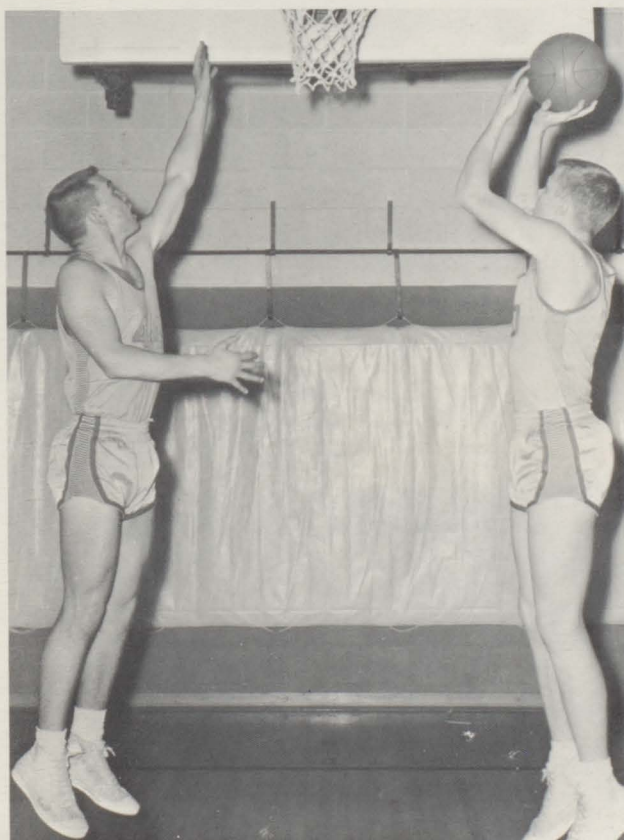

Chuck Hague was our only returning senior letterman on the basketball squad this year. He played in his sophomore year with our varsity reserves. For the past two years Chuck has played for the varsity team.

Fred Bernardo, the only other senior on the squad, played basketball all through his junior high years. Fred missed his junior year on the squad because of an injury but came back strong this year to provide the depth a championship team needs.

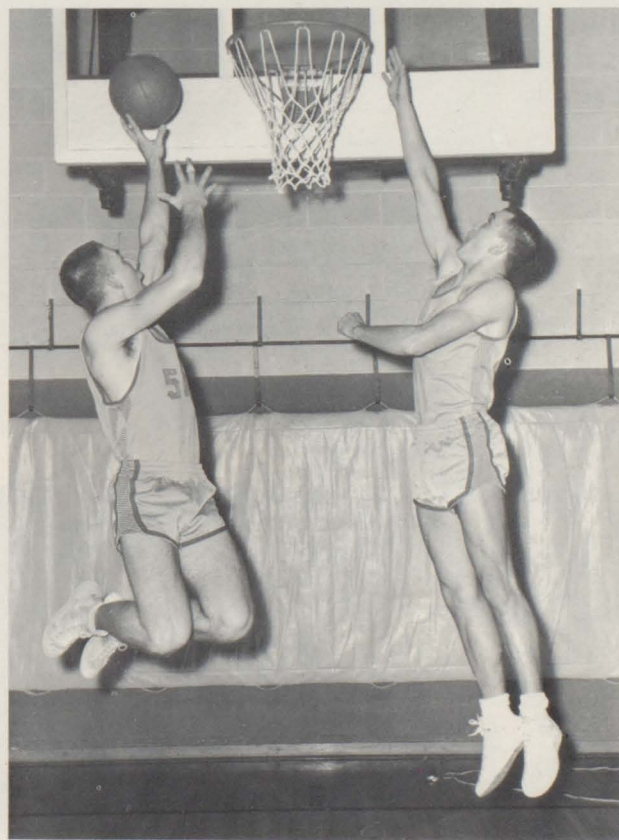

Rounding out the squad this year were four juniors and one sophomore. Juniors were Pete Pearson and George Jeram who were elected to the 1st team WRL, and also Paul Braski and Hal Forrest, Doug Vaccelli was the sophomore.

THE BIG FOUR

Mr. Wasulko coaches the H.H.S. golf team and assists Mr. Abel and Mr. Soltys in their coaching duties. Seventh and eighth graders know him better in the classroom as their math and science teacher.

Mr. Soltys has done another fine coaching job this year and again our football team has had a winning season. Physics, advanced algebra, slide rule, and 8th grade science are subjects taught by Mr. Soltys.

Under the "able" coaching of Mr. Abel, our basketball team was finally victorious over the Ashtabula High team after many years of defeat. The school spirit really soared after this triumph. Coach Abel's stirring talks at the pep meetings have filled the players with the will to win.

V-A-R-S-I-T-Y

The Senior High Varsity Cheerleaders present pep assemblies during football and basketball season to inspire the team and the students. This year a newly-formed Pep Club participated in some of the programs and provided a cheering section at all of the games. To raise money the cheerleaders sponsored an informal "Jeans and Shirt" dance which was attended by approximately 225 students.

The purpose of the cheerleaders is to lead the fans at all times in sportsmanlike cheering at athletic events. These girls, under the supervision of Miss Gloria Leach, have really worked hard to help Harbor have a successful season in competitive sports. Those graduating are Susan Carle, Cyndy Carlisle, Chris Jaskela, and Judy Kneen.

RESERVE BASKETBALL TEAM

The senior high reserves, composed of eight sophomores and three juniors have had a very successful season. Captain Mike Kane has led them on to the many victories. Usually the reserve game is a "Warm up" game for the varsity team, but this year the reserves played many games that were just as exciting as the varsity. Most of these boys will no doubt go on to play for varsity next year. We hope they will keep playing the game from start to finish and have another winning season.

THE 1959 TRACK TEAM

The 1959 Track Team won their fourth consecutive Western Reserve League Track Title, placed second in the Five-Team Invitational Meet, sixth in the Mentor Relays, and fourth in the district tournament. In their duel meets the Harbor Mariners won 5, lost 1, and tied 1.

Returning senior lettermen for this year's track team are Steve Hartman, Marty Miller, and Gary Godley. The team is coached under the leadership of Mr. Gray, who has proved himself to be outstanding in his field.

ACTIVE SEASON

If you happened to be in the gym from 5 to 7 p.m. during basketball season, you might have seen Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Cavelancia with their junior high basketball team diligently practicing. Although the boys did not win many games, they learned good sportsmanship, co-operation with other members of the team, and the fundamentals of playing basketball. There were two junior high teams; one composed of 7th and 8th graders, and the other of 9th graders. Captain of the 7th and 8th grade team was Jim Lengyel, and captain of the 9th grade team was Dave Turner.

GAINED

EXPERIENCE

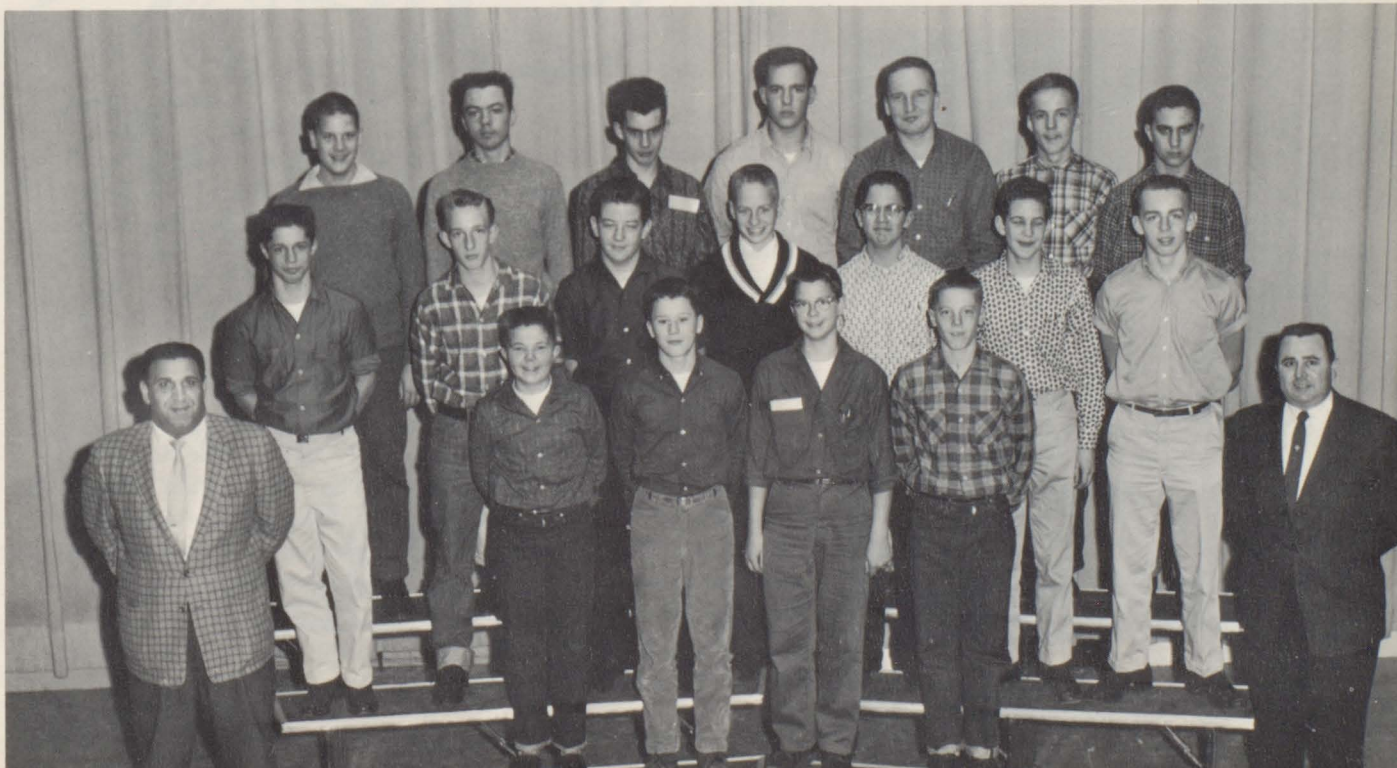

This year's junior high football team has really grown since last year. Coached by Mr. Domenic Cavelancia, a sixth grade teacher at Washington School, and Mr. Edward Ogurchak, a fifth grade teacher at Thomas Jefferson School, the team has gained much experience that will be helpful to them if they continue with their football playing. Captain for this year's team, composed of 7th, 8th, and 9th graders, was Thad Hague. The boys practiced each night after school for two hours.

GOLF TEAM

The Mariner Golf Team will be shooting this spring for their second North Eastern Golf League Championship. Schools in the NECL are Wickliffe, Willoughby, Chardon, Painesville, Riverside, Conneaut, Madison, Ashtabula, and Harbor. Mentor and Geneva are considering the idea of entering the league.

The Mariners will have four returning letterman, Bill Balog, Dick Morrison, Bob Fortney, and Tom Buonomo. Jim Nyland, Steve Hartman and Pete McCaulay hope to see action this year too.

Bill Balog, a senior, is a one year letterman. He has been playing golf for four years and three years on the team. Dick Morrison, a sophomore, is a one year letterman and has many honors to his credit. Bob Fortney, a senior, is a one year letterman and has had a lot of experience. Tom Buonomo, a senior, and two year letterman was out of action last year, but is back in full strength. He also has many honors and is expected to shoot in the 70's.

Coached by Mr. Wasulko, the team will have a lot to look forward to this year.

FOOTBALL HOMECOMING

One of the greatest spectacles that shall live in the hearts of Harbor seniors is the Crowning of the Homecoming Queen and the recognition of her court.

Six senior girls were nominated by the senior class for the honor. Highlighting a vigorous campaign was a presentation of the candidates in a special assembly program. A few days before the Harbor-Madison game, eighth through twelfth graders voted. The result was a closely guarded secret.

After a solemn, beautiful procession of cars carrying the candidates, the six girls stepped onto the playing field at the halftime of the Madison clash. Gwen Miller was crowned queen by football captain Gary Godley. Cyndy Carlisle, Judy Kneen, Suzanne Regner, Lorraine Perugine, and Marcia Miller made up the Queen's court.

"A DATE WITH JUDY"

Judy Foster is determined to be queen at her club's big dance and to beat her rival, Tootsie Whiteman. To beat Tootsie, Judy must turn in the most subscriptions to a community Relief Fund. She enters scores of contests in order to raise the necessary money. When her brainstorm didn't turn out so well, her parents became extremely perturbed. After many calamities, however, the play closes with a happy ending.

The play was under the direction of Miss Betty Jean O'Dell with Pat Pinney as Student director. Book-holders were Suella Grimm and Pat Rose.

"THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER"

The play centered around Sheridan Whiteside, who was a well known critic. Invited to dinner at the Stanley home, he falls on the porch and is believed to have a broken hip. He remains at the Stanley residence, and takes over the household conducting all his business affairs and entertaining friends.

After several hilarious situations, Whiteside prepares to leave. However, as he is leaving, he again falls on the porch. As the curtain closes, we see Whiteside being carried back into the Stanley home.

The 19th Annual Mariner Variety Show under the direction of Mrs. Helia K. Lehtinen was presented in the auditorium February 17th. This year's show, "Salute to the Sixties," began with the Sr. Girls' chorus singing two numbers. Miss Varieties, Susan Carle, was introduced and welcomed everyone to the show.

This was followed by a large variety of other acts. Those not pictured here included the trampoline artists who presented their routine, followed by several pantomimes by Chuck Schroeder. "This Nearly was Mine" was a vocal duet sung by Suzanne Regner and Art Sheppard with dance interpretation by the cheerleaders and their partners. Jean Hakala and Art Sheppard gave their rendition of "Heather on the Hill" from BRIGADOON.

The modern dancers, presented two other numbers, "Russian Dance" and "Sole to Sole." Tina Maenpa, Barbara Kujanpa, and the girls' chorus presented a scene from WEST SIDE STORY. Murray Blake, H.H.S. teacher, sang "A Little Bit of Heaven" accompanied by Judy Herlevi.

Each year the Variety Show ends with a patriotic number sung by the choir. Receiving the coveted honor of Goddess of Liberty was Tina Maenpa.

SOUTH PACIFIC

In the spring of 1958 the choir gave as part of their spring concert a few scenes from South Pacific. Suzanne Regner, a sophomore, and Gary Benson, a senior, had the parts of Nellie Forbush and Emil Duboque with Kathy Parker, a senior, playing Bloody Mary. The songs included "There is Nothin' Like a Dame," "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Out O' My Hair," "Bali Hai," "Some Enchanted Evening," "Honeybun," and "I'm In Love With A Wonderful Guy."

MY FAIR LADY

The Madrigals group presented scenes from "My Fair Lady" in November, 1958. Suzanne Regner played Eliza Doolittle and Bob Pressman played Henry Higgins with Art Sheppard and Mary Jane Engelke as Colonel Pickering and Mrs. Pearce. The songs included "I Could Have Danced All Night," "Just You Wait, Henry Higgins," "Poor Professor Higgins," "The Rain In Spain," "Why Can't The English Learn to Speak," "The Ascot Races," and "Congratulations, Professor Higgins."

WEST SIDE STORY

Scenes from the smash Broadway Musical "West Side Story" were presented for assembly this year by members of the choir. The leads included Sarajeon Bordeaux as Maria, Dave Felt as Tony, and Barbara Kujampa as Anita. Songs were "Maria," "Tonight," "America," "Somewhere," "I Feel Pretty," and "One Hand, One Heart."

OKLAHOMA

A full-scale musical production, "Oklahoma!" was put on by the student body in April, 1959. Sarajeon Bordeaux played Laurey, Bob Fortney played Curly, Gwen Miller, portrayed Ado Annie, Dave Felt played Will Parker with Joanne Thayer as Aunt Eller and Bob Pressman as Ali Hakim. It was presented on two nights. The audience loved the familiar songs and all will long remember the fun they had putting it on.

CO-EDITORS SALUTE YOU . .

Time has finally come for all good yearbook Editors to let their hair down and really live it up. To all of you--our teachers, school, community, and parents--who never let us down, we would like to express our thanks. We know we brought about many disturbances in classes and schedules and made many demands on our parents, but still you were wonderful and helped us in every way. We appreciate all the support that has made this yearbook possible.

The entire senior class has had a helping hand in putting out their 1960 Mariner yearbook. Most of them worked on various committees and did a fine job.

We would especially like to recognize Lorraine Perugine, chairman of advertising, who had to put in more time and work than any other person on our staff. She and her committee worked from the very beginning of the year in order to finance our yearbook. Karen Wible, chairman of typing, and her committee did all our typing quickly and efficiently. Special thanks goes to Pat Long and Vyv Shouse for always typing before last minute deadlines. Chairman of literary, Tina Maenpa, and her committee put forth a lot of time and thought in the many articles they produced.

The familiar words "Get more flashbulbs" will no longer be heard in the halls of Harbor High as the photography staff, headed by John McCormick and Val Osinski, have closed up shop. With the assistance of Jim Updegraff and Bob Hauser they provided us with many wonderful pictures. A helpful addition to our staff was a freshman, Mike Meehan. He's been a wonderful help and has turned out some outstanding pictures. He will be a great asset in the coming years.

Another hard job on the yearbook staff was that of layout, which was handled neatly and competently by Cyndy Carlisle and her committee. We could always depend on Cyndy to have things done when needed.

Take a second look at the pages containing artwork, particularly Peanuts and his friends, and you'll appreciate the talent that Patty Hill, chairman of art, Sandy Lyon, and Jim Tallbacka with the rest of the committee displayed.

The subscription committee, headed by Dave Felt and Kip Jones, took care of obtaining subscriptions and distributing the annuals.

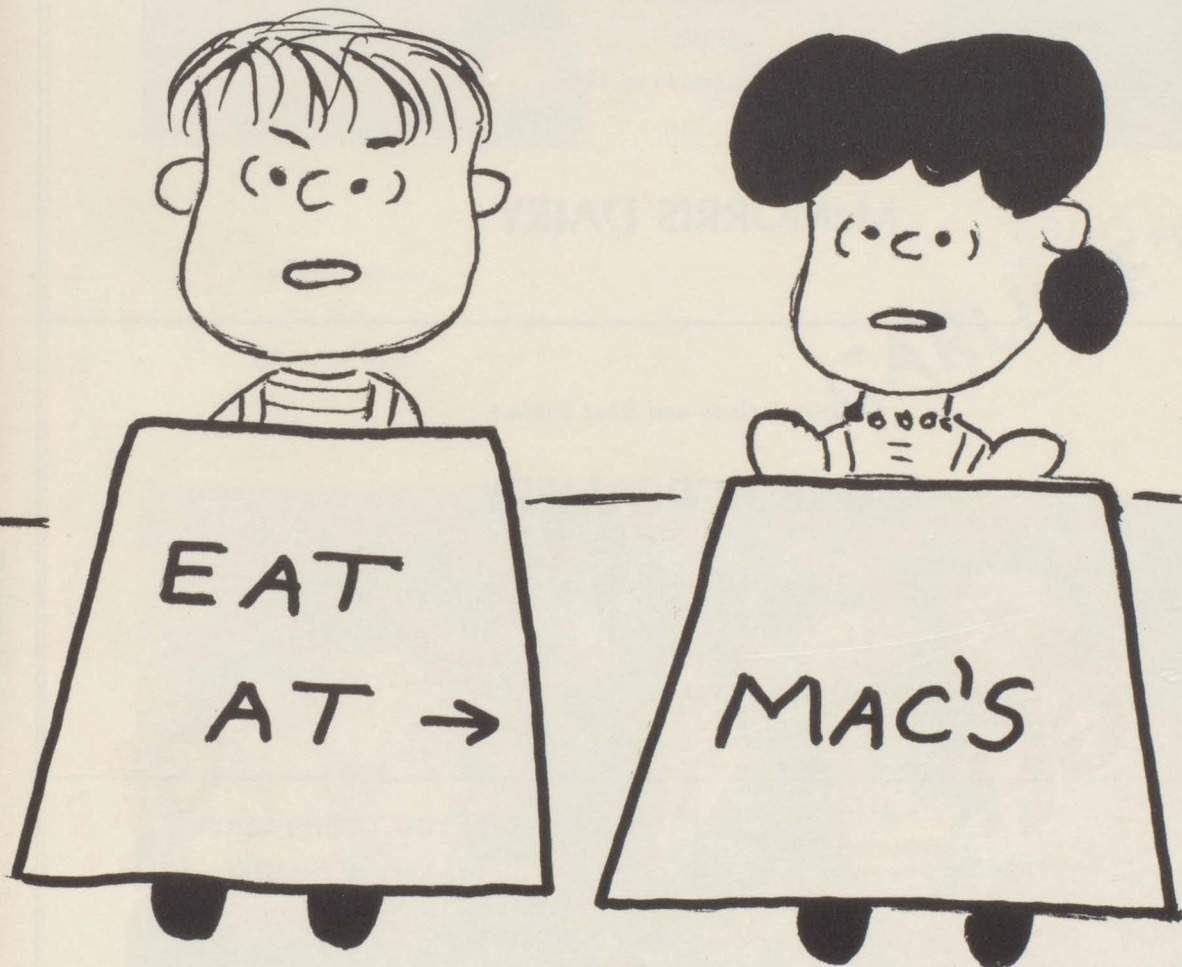

Not only the yearbook staff but also every member of our class expresses their appreciation to Mr. Jones, our yearbook advisor. He guided us throughout the year, and was always ready and willing to help us in any difficulties. Pete Prentner, our district representative, also receives our thanks for his helpful hints and down to earth advice.

"Annually" yours

Suzie and Judy
